ROBLOX makes it easy for users to participate in local multiplayer games. For example, a user can connect three iPads together and play the game Invader ZIM on them. There are also games where players connect their computers through WiFi and play online games with one another, such as Minecraft. You can also use RoomBuddy to track where your room members are located, so you don't have to worry about them leaving your house unsupervised.

Roblox has been criticized for allowing other companies to make games on their site such as "Mining Simulator", which is a game that contains copyrighted material from BeamNG.drive, and "Brain Simulator", which is a clear clone of Brain Cube (which was also created by the same person who created Brain Simulator), and copyrighted material from several other games such as Robloxian Highschool and Backyard Zombies.

This game has many bugs such as glitching which can happen at any time including in games. There is no way to report this glitch due to the fact that the button isn't there and you can only report it from the website. This is extremely annoying because you need to refresh the page and play all over again, but this usually happens when you are about to win.

On October 10, 2021, Roblox announced that they will be selling 49% of their ownership stake to Tencent Holdings for $100 million. The deal is subject to approval by the Roblox board of directors and Tencent before it goes into effect. The transaction will be funded from Roblox's 'new business' funds, which aim to expand the company's offerings including VR, augmented reality and mobile.

On January 24th, 2021, ROBLOX released a plan for their future development. The main goal is to separate ROBLOX from its animation engine and make it its own game platform[107] This will greatly cut down on the amount of time it takes to develop games for the site.

The developers of free games can offer premium features in their game. However, due to the fact that all premium features are only available in Builder's Club, in most cases they will if there is no way for the developer to observe this from a third-party mod or script perspective, then it can only be done via a Builders Club Premium [55][56].

Farmville: This is yet another example of a game that doesn't really offer any value at all but still manages to make a ton of money. It's a very bizarre concept which involves fun because you think you're going to become rich by buying fake farm products and selling them or you can become popular by posting pictures of your fake farm products and getting attention from people who want similar things. I mean, if this is what people want then it's really no different than Roblox except with Farmville you're dealing with real money.

On July 10th, 2021 the game was removed from the ROBLOX website and replaced by a non-game item called "Anthem". It is unknown why it was removed. On November 15th, 2021, ROBLOX released a new work-in-progress game on Steam named "Anthem". It was revealed that the company decided to release this new version of the game after listening to many negative comments about its original version.[89] On November 23rd 2021, it was announced that the game would be released for free for everyone due to its many issues.

In ROBLOX, safety is one of the main concerns facing parents. The website can sometimes be a risky place for children because they sometimes come across people being rude, bullying, etc. [138] . ROBLOX is doing its best to make sure that its users stay safe while playing games. First, ROBLOX has safety features in place. A "report user" button is at the bottom right of every player's screen. This button appears if someone is acting rude to you in a game. Pressing it leads you to a page where you can add as much detail as you can about what happened and why it was wrong. The person reading the complaint will then investigate the situation and take necessary actions towards offending players. Players have also found ways to use this button for wrong reasons, like falsely reporting users to get them banned from playing ROBLOX.
